

COMPANY FOOD SAFETY (HACCP) POLICY

Food Safety Culture

As a provider of packing to the food industry, we have a responsibility to maintain effective food safety practices.

Awareness and Involvement

We will understand our customers' expectations for hygiene and ensure that our employees, suppliers, contractors and distributors understand and carry out their roles and responsibilities.

Prevent Contamination

Through high standards of hygiene and effective Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP) we will prevent contamination.

Robust Systems

We will continually review and improve our food safety (HACCP) systems and support this with training, inspections and audits.
